Chapter 1. Responsibilities

1.1 NASA Center Directors are responsible for safeguarding the health of their employees.

1.2 NASA Health Clinics shall:

- a. Ensure that specific health-related travel requirements as stipulated in the CDC Health Information for International Travel (Latest Edition) "Yellow Book" are met.
- b. Offer traveler health services as an integral part of their occupational health services and are responsible for contacting the NASA Chief Health and Medical Officer (CHMO) in the event that a traveler from its NASA Center is involved in a medical incident or evacuation.

1.3 NASA civil service travelers shall:

- a. Secure requisite information and medical clearance prior to going on foreign travel, including compensation claims information.
- b. Confirm that their personal medical insurance carrier provides adequate coverage for work-related and personal injury/illness medical costs.
- c. Return recyclable medical kit containers to the Health Clinic upon completion of travel.

1.4 Contractors are responsible for establishing their medical clearance policies and for making all arrangements for their own employees' emergency medical services and evacuation while performing work for NASA outside the United States (U.S.) or in remote locations in the U.S., in accordance with their contract as prescribed in NASA FAR Supplement, Clause 1852.242-78.
